

Figure 5.2: Type of License You Need for What You Want to Drive and Tow

		Type of License You Need (See note 2)
		A	B	C	M1	M2
What you can drive	2 axle vehicle	yes	yes	yes if GVWR less than or equal to 26,000 lbs.	for motorcycles and special certificate required if less than 21 years of age	for motorized bicycle and moped and certificate required if less than 21 years of age
	3 axle vehicle	yes	yes	yes if GVWR less than or equal to 6,000 lbs.	Not applicable
	any combination of vehicles	yes unless towing with passenger vehicle	same as C	no unless you are a farmer not towing with passenger vehicle and GCWR less than or equal to 26,000 lbs.
	bus	yes with endorsement	yes with endorsement	not permitted
	farm labor vehicle	yes with endorsement	yes with endorsement	not permitted

		A	B	C
What you can tow	a single vehicle except as noted below	yes	yes if less than 10,000 lbs.	yes if GVWR less than or equal to 10,000 lbs. and towing vehicle weighs more than 4,000 lbs.; or up to 15,000 lbs. with endorsement See Note(1)
	trailer bus	yes	no	no more than one vehicle	yes with endorsement	no	no boat trailer	yes	same as C	yes if GVWR of boat and trailer is less than 10,000 lbs. and towing vehicle weighs more than 4,000 lbs.
	5th wheel travel trailer	yes	yes	yes if GVWR is less than 10,000 lbs. and towing vehicle weighs more than 4,000 lbs.

Note (1): If towing vehicle weighs less than 4,000 lbs. then vehicle towed cannot exceed 6,000 lbs.

Note (2) : Other types of licenses are required if you are driving emergency vehicles and/or are a commercial driver.